During an exciting game of base ball between the National League teams, New York and Cincinnati, yesterday, "Muggsey" McGraw, captain of the New York team, shot Harry Stienfeldt, third baseman of the Cincinnati club, in the leg. The game was won by Cincinnati, the score being 3 to 0.

NOTHING but the celebrated Geo. Weidemann Beer, always fresh and cold, at Geo. T. Lyons. (12m33t)

MR. GEO. W. LYONS, the enterprising agent for the Geo. Weidemann Brewing Co., and distributor in Paris for the famous Blue Lick water, has just finished a new business block on Main, near Tenth, and has opened up a first-class saloon in it. The place will be known as the "Sky-Scraper." Mr. Lyons invites all of his friends to call on him. If you are fond of "high-balls," you surely ought to find them in a sky-scraper.

At 8 o'clock, this morning, Will McCarthy will pay the penalty for wife murder, at Lexington.

In the Louisville Times, of Wednesday, Willard Mitchell says that he has not given up his chances of election and that he will certainly land the office of Attorney-General, and wants his friends to know that he is a winner.

SENATOR GORMAN has no ambition to become President, says the Baltimore Sun. He will sail this week for Europe.

Try For the Prize.

There is nothing that shows the energy and push of a business man more than the way in which he displays his goods, and the manner in which he advertises his particular line of business. A float in the Trades' Parade on Monday, May 18th, the first day of the grand Street Fair and Carnival, is a good way to advertise.

Fifty dollars in prizes offered for first, second and third best floats—$25 to 1st, $15 to 2nd and $10 to 3rd.

Put a float in line and advertise your business.
